Equity and Excellence

Equity and Excellence is our plan for every state school student, focusing on educational Priorities:

- Lifting educational outcomes in key areas of English and maths
- Enable all students to achieve no matter their background, circumstances, or postcode
- Reducing barriers for all learners, including our First Nations students and their communities
- Preparing the students of today for a more diverse and global world, it unlocks students' potential to become healthy, productive, life-long learners and Preparing the stud job-ready citizens.

P-12 Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Framework (P-12 CARF)-Nov. 2023

The school enacts the intentions of the P-12 CARF, ensuring the right of every student to access a secondary education appropriate to their needs:

\begin{aligned}
& \text { prioritising critical key points in each student's learning journey } \\
& \text { focusing on educational achievement, wellbeing and engagem }
\end{aligned}

Mackay North State High School implements the requirements of the P-12 Framework considering government priorities and in consultation with parents and the school community. Our requirements are met through effective school leadership, quality teaching and learning, focusing on improved systematic curriculum delivery, to ensure all students, of all identities and abilities are able to:

- access and participate in the curriculum alongside their similar-aged peers achieve academically and socially with tailored supports including reasonable adjustments that meet their learning needs
Pedagogy:
Our school utilises 3 high impact teaching strategies as identified in contemporary research and endorsed by the Australian Institute for Teaching and School Leadership. The three strategies with a high effect size are
- Explicit Instruction,
- Learning Intentions and
- Feedback.

Different KLAs are exploring subject based pedagogies to best focus on their curriculum and delivery.
Our pedagogy is represented by a placemat that outlines our consideration of the Equity and Excellence policy, our AIP and the AITSL teacher capabilities. The evidence base and feedback.
Whe
Whist these educational theories identify overarching pedagogical approaches, each unit of work identifies targeted pedagogical approaches adopted to suit the specific unit of work and subject.

Inclusion:

Mackay North SHS ensures inclusion through:

- Provision of reasonable adjustments and support tailored to meet individual learning needs, allowing the opportunity for achievement academically, culturally and socially.
- Creation of a welcoming environment - within and beyond the classroom in high-quality education and full engagement in the curriculum alongside their similar-aged peers Provision of a safe and supportive environment, addressing bullying, discrimination or harassment.

Curriculum:

Mackay North SHS delivers the Australian Curriculum Yr. 7 - 10 (version 8.4 and transitioning to version 9.0), and he State Senior syllabuses.
Our curriculum considers our students, our local context and General capabilities
Cross Curricular Priorities

Reporting:

Reports are based upon student assessment folios; which include student responses to summative assessment for each learning area / subject.

- Performance is measured against the relevant achievement standards and related assessable elements. In the event a student cannot perform or undertake summative assessment, the teacher will explore formative work to identify capability in the achievement standards.
Reports are issued four times per year: term 1 interim, semester 1 , term 3 interim, semester 2. Reports are A-E. Parent teacher interviews are available twice per year, and on request.
$21^{\text {st }}$ Century Skills - are taught across the curriculum
